

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH 'DANDERINE'

Spend a few cents! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Hair gets beautiful, wavy, and thick in few moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that glimmers with beauty and is radiant with life, has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not ever come it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents. Use a little as directed, and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of anything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. It attacks young and old alike. In most cases the victim is warned of the approaching danger. Nature fights back. Headache, indigestion, insomnia, lame back, lumbago, sciatica, rheumatism, pain in the joints and lower abdomen, difficulty in urinating, all are indication of trouble brewing in your kidneys.

When such symptoms appear you will almost certainly find quick relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules.

This famous old remedy has stood the test for two hundred years in helping mankind to fight off disease.

"I believe great physical activity is important to the health of the country," says Commissioner Wm. R. Kerr, of the City of Chicago. "From my own experience with Nuxated Iron I feel it is such a valuable blood and body builder, and a preparation that ought to be used in every household and in every hospital."

CLAIMED KOSCIUSZKO WAS A LITHUANIAN

Kosciuszko, whose birthday is celebrated today, was not a Pole as is generally believed, but a Lithuanian, says a statement given out by the Washington office of the Lithuanian National Council.

Most of his biographers give the place of his birth as Nagevikius, Lithuania. Even his Polish biographers admit this. His name in the Lithuanian tongue signifies Little Constantine.

Now comes the record of official documents from Vilna, and among these a letter written in 1784 by Kosciuszko himself, to his superior officer, General Nielechowski, was likewise of Lithuanian birth. In this letter Kosciuszko asks for an order to go back to Lithuania. "Who am I," says he, "if not your countryman and a Lithuanian?" As their own men, being a Lithuanian, I do not want to serve for Poland.

Came to America. It is explained that, in the time of Kosciuszko there was a union between Poland and Lithuania similar to that between Austria and Hungary before the recent war. Kosciuszko was trained in the military academy of the dual government and later studied in France. Thence he came to America and fought for freedom on the same basis as did Lafayette. He had just returned from the war in America when he wrote the letter quoted above.

Racally, continues the statement, the Poles were and are entirely different from the Lithuanians. The former are Slavs and the latter are of the Indo-European stock from which the blonde people of western Europe came. The languages have no similarity, the Lithuanian being the language of Europe in which the old Sanskrit is best preserved.

Union Caused Misfortune. Nothing but misfortune ever came of the association of Poles and Lithuanians, misfortune which ended in the domination of both peoples by the Russians. So now, that the new Polish government has declared its ambition to hold sway over this people to whom it has brought so much sorrow, the Lithuanians are protesting, are asking the League of Nations to pass on their qualifications to become a nation, and asking the United States to act as mandatory in their behalf. Finally, they are asking that the Lithuanians be recognized as a nation, as the nationality of Kosciuszko is admitted.

COL. GARLINGTON IS AWARDED D. S. M.

For "extraordinary heroism in action," Col. Creswell Garlington, son of Brig. Gen. R. A. Garlington, retired, of 1742 R street northwest, has been awarded the distinguished service medal, according to announcement by the War Department today.

Colonel Garlington is a member of the general staff of the Seventy-seventh division.

According to the recommendation for the award, Colonel Garlington "distinguished himself by his splendid courage, service, and sacrifice in rescuing a wounded comrade under heavy fire." In anticipation of an attack by units of his command in the vicinity of Merval, France, Colonel Garlington, assisted by two other officers, established an advanced observation post. During the performance of this duty one of the officers was wounded.

Colonel Garlington succeeded in dragging the wounded officer to a shell hole. Here he left him while he ran for assistance. With the assistance of another officer, they carried the wounded man back to the dugout.

Colonel Garlington was promoted to the rank of colonel last October.

BRITISH WORKERS DISCUSS PROBLEMS

LONDON, Feb. 12.—Representatives of more than a million British workers met today to discuss wages, hours of employment, and working conditions.

Miners delegates, representing 600,000 men, assembled to receive the government's reply to their demand for a 20 per cent wage increase, a six-hour day, and nationalization of mines. The National Union of Railwaymen, representing 400,000, discussed the general labor conditions. The transport workers' federation, representing 250,000, will receive the employers' answer to their demands for higher wages and a forty-four hour week. Striking shipyard workers at the Clyde district, having ordered back to work today, have been instructed by their committee to prepare for "national action." Premier Lloyd George's speech before the House of Commons yesterday, in which he uttered a deft to "Prussianism" in the ranks of labor, was expected to form one of the principal subjects of debate in the various industrial meetings today.

"Labor's fair demands would be examined carefully," he said, "but in these times it is proposed for the purpose of holding up a community and destroying the government by brute force, I say on behalf of the government that we will fight Prussianism in the industrial world exactly as we fought it on the continent of Europe, with the whole might of the nation."

SUPREME COURT MUST SETTLE BOOZE DISPUTE

"It's up to the Supreme Court. The Constitution provides that when three-fourths of the States certify to the adoption of a constitutional amendment the Secretary of State shall issue the proclamation. If some of the States actually have not completed the process, I have no way of determining that fact."

This was the only comment Acting Secretary of State Polk would make today on the article published in the Providence Journal holding that his prohibition proclamation was unconstitutional.
